El Pasoans Fighting Hunger

- Postcard/Invitation

El Pasoans Fighting Hunger
a 501 (c) (3) organization
(Formerly known as the West Texas Food Bank in El Paso)

Event to be held at
El Paso Community College
Administrative facility
9050 Viscount Building A
February 11, 2012
12:00-4:00PM

You are invited to help people in need

Empty Bowls is an international grassroots effort to fight hunger. The basic premise is simple: Potters and other craftspeople, educators and others work with the community to create handcrafted bowls. Guests pay $15 for a ticket and are invited to sample soups made by culinary students and are given a bowl to keep as a reminder of all the empty bowls in the world. The money raised is donated to El Pasoans Fighting Hunger. (Formerly known as the West Texas Food Bank.)

Each individual or group organizing an event designs it around the needs of their own community and is responsible for their own event. This is where we are asking for help. Please consider making a corporate contribution to help end hunger in our region.

Statistics show that 1 out of 8 Americans struggle with food insecurity every day. Millions of people have lost their jobs during the most recent recession and the number of food stamp recipients has increased dramatically. Your help is needed now more than ever.

Please find the time, make the commitment, get involved. Your single effort can have a profound impact.

Please join us February 11, 2012, your help is needed!
